GOVERNMENT OF GOA, DAMAN AND DIU

Public Health Department

Notification

A-9/71-DHS/4921

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 91 of the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912 (Act 4 of 1912) and all other powers enabling it in that behalf, the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu hereby makes the following rules and publishes the same, as required by the section 92 of the said Act.

1. Short title, extent and commencement. — (1) These Rules may be called as "The Goa, Daman and Diu Lunacy Rules, 1974".

(2) They shall come into force at once and shall extend to the whole Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu.

2. Definition. — In these Rules unless there is anything repugnant to the subject or context —

(a) "Act" means the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912;

(b) "Section" means a section of the Act;

(c) "Superintendent" means the officer in charge of the Mental Hospital;

(d) "Government" means Government of Goa, Daman and Diu;

(e) "Union Territory" means the Union territory of Goa, Daman and Diu;

(f) "Magistrate" means District Magistrate, Subdivisional Magistrate or a Magistrate of the First Class, specially empowered by the Government to perform the functions of a Magistrate under the Act;

(g) "Official Visitor" means any person appointed as a Visitor by the Government;

(h) "Escort" means any near relative of the lunatic or any other person including the police officer whom the Magistrate may direct to escort the patient;

(i) "Mental Hospital" means Mental Hospital "Abade Faria" situated at Altinho, Panaji.

3. General Establishment of Mental Hospital. — Mental Hospital "Abade Faria" has been established by the Government under section 84 of the Act for the reception and treatment of persons of any class from any part of the Union Territory.

4. Detention of person under observation. — (1) A person ordered to be detained for observation under section 16 of the Act in any part of this Union Territory in which there is no Mental Hospital shall be sent to a hospital or dispensary where suitable accommodation exists, or to a jail or lock-up, as may seem most appropriate to the Magistrate, regard being had to his apparent condition, the means and availability of accommodation and guarding, and the facilities for skilled observation available in each case.

(2) The Magistrate may at his discretion make special provision for guarding the person detained by police officers.

5. Admission of voluntary boarders. — (1) Any person who wishes to become a voluntary boarder in a Mental Hospital must obtain from the Superintendent a form (Appendix I), which he will fill up and sign and have approval of two of the official visitors. He should then submit the forms to the Superintendent who shall subject to the provisions of the sub-rule (4) receive and lodge him for treatment, if suitable accommodation is available. Provided that in cases of minor person the application shall be signed by his guardian.

(2) Whenever a voluntary boarder is admitted or a minor is admitted in a Mental Hospital he/she as the case may be or the guardian in the case of minor should pay an advance of Rs. 5/- or such amount, the Superintendent of the Mental Hospital may direct, not exceeding Rs. 5/- to convey him/her to his/her home with an escort and for return journey of the escort also. While taking declaration of the income of his/her guardian at the time of the admission, the guardian should give in writing that the maintenance charges shall be paid in advance and subsequently, if the guardian proves to be a defaulter, the Superintendent of the Mental Hospital shall have the discretion to discharge the patient and sent him/her home with an escort and make the necessary recoveries.

(3) The voluntary boarder shall be discharged at the request of the boarder himself or in case of minor by his/her guardian, within 24 hours of making such a request.

(4) No person in charge of an asylum shall, in granting a Certificate prescribed in the form in Appendix I to an intending boarder or for receiving and lodging him in the asylum under the provision to sub-section (1) of Section 4, charge fees of any kind.

6. Intimation to Superintendent that lunatic is to be received.—(1) Any authority before making a reception order or an order for admission to any Mental Hospital shall communicate direct with the Superintendent and ascertain if accommodation is available specifying at the same time the sex, race and caste of the lunatic.

(2) Inquiry as to the domicile of the lunatic:—A Magistrate making a reception order under section 14 or 15 of the Act, shall after ascertaining that accommodation is available, direct the reception of the lunatic into the Mental Hospital or Asylum, affording suitable accommodation. He shall, in all cases, make strict inquiry as to the domicile of the lunatic and shall see that entry to that effect is made in the medical history sheet (Appendix III) or is communicated as soon as possible to the Superintendent of the Hospital.

(3) Procedure to be followed by Magistrate making reception order under sections 5-11 of the Act:—A Magistrate cannot authorise the admission of a lunatic under section 5-11 of the Act into an Asylum or Mental Hospital in another State except under a general special order of the Government made in this behalf (Section 85 of the Act). In all such cases he shall first satisfy himself that accommodation is available and that the cost of maintenance will be paid (sec.11). In order to effect the earliest possible treatment of the lunatic, action shall be taken as soon as possible, and the Magistrate shall furnish to the Government in writing full details as to domicile, reasons for the admission fees agreed to, etc.

7. Undertaking in writing by the petitioner or some other person for the payment of maintenance charges of the lunatic.—The petitioner or some other person desiring to engage himself under clause (b) of section 11 of this Act to pay the cost of maintenance of the lunatic shall, in order to satisfy the Magistrate that he will carry out his undertaking, give such undertaking in the form in Appendix IV.

8. Transfer and escort of lunatic.—(1) When a Magistrate has made an order under section 14 or 15 of the Act for the detention of a lunatic in Mental Hospital he shall arrange, in communication with the police, for the early despatch of such lunatic with a suitable escort. The reception order, the medical history sheet in the form, Appendix III, the evidence of the medical witness, if taken, and any other papers or copies thereof that may be necessary or have a bearing on the lunatic's state of mind shall be forwarded to the Superintendent of the Hospital by registered post, a duplicate of the order being also given to the escort. If for any reason the medical history sheet or other document not prescribed by the Act cannot be forwarded at once, they should be furnished later; but the lunatic should not be allowed to remain in a civil hospital or lock-up because these papers are not ready.

(2) No lunatic shall be despatched to the Mental Hospital unless a medical officer or medical practitioner certifies in the prescribed form (Appendix II) immediately before despatch that he is fit to travel. The originals of such certificates shall be sent to the Superintendent of the Hospital by post.

(3) The Magistrate, shall satisfy himself that the lunatic is provided with sufficient clothing and bedding for his protection and comfort during the journey. He shall provide the escort with sufficient means to purchase food for the lunatic on the journey, and shall instruct the officer in charge to take the lunatic to the nearest hospital for treatment in the event of his becoming ill.

(4) A female lunatic as far as possible shall be accompanied by a female attendant or relative, in addition to the police escort.
